

*Lewis Ginter Botanical Garden
Education & Learning Center
1800 Lakeside Avenue
Richmond, VA 23228*

March 30, 2012

Join Ron Nash as he works with trainers, administrators and teacher leaders who want to improve professional development workshops in schools and districts.

Ron will model more than two-dozen specific strategies that can be used immediately in workshops with teachers and staff. Participants will receive a guidebook filled with strategies for working with adults in a workshop setting. Wear comfortable shoes, bring a pen, and get ready to move, collaborate, laugh, and learn in this high-energy, high-impact seminar geared toward making you a better workshop facilitator.

*Registration &
Continental Breakfast 8:20 - 9:00
Seminar Hours 9:00 a.m. - 3:00 p.m.*

Each participant will receive a copy of Ron's book, The Active Workshop: Practical Strategies for Facilitating Professional Learning.

We will serve a boxed lunch around 11:45, and participants will have 75 minutes to wander through the pathways and gardens of the Lewis Ginter Botanical Garden property.

Continental breakfast

Lunch

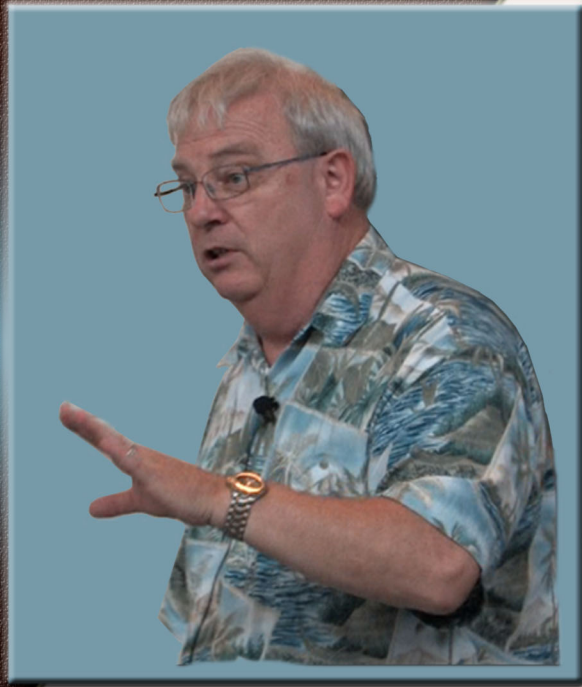

Guidebook

Lots of door prizes

Making it Memorable

Strategies for Facilitating Teacher Workshops

Seminar fee is $135

To see what administrators and teachers say about Ron Nash, click here.

To register for the Making it Memorable seminar, click here.

To get more information on Ron's books, click here.

To visit Ron Nash's website, click here.